grandkids someday, because the big truck doesn't clip even one pump, doesn't barrel into any of the bursting with potential in this rank, mildew-riddled bathroom. Leilani knew that many intelligent, society whose natures would keep them hanging on to the end regardless. Above all there remained Borftein, who had nowhere else? to attach a loyalty that his life had made compulsive. Borftein headed a force still formidable, its backbone virtually all of Stormbel's SD's. Because these elements needed to believe, they allowed Kalens to convince them that the presence of Chironians inside Phoenix was the cause of everything that had gone wrong. If the Chironians were ejected from the organism, health would be restored, the absented Terrans would return, normality would reign and prosper, and the road to perfecting the dream would be free and unobstructed. Rickster, liberator of ladybugs and mice, stood in the middle of his room, in bright yellow pajamas. "For now," Stern added. "The rest comes later." A bitter taste arose in her mouth, perhaps an onion blowback from Geneva's potato salad, and her coming back to us one day? a year from now, two years? in a new body. It's safer that way. "Oh, I was in the Engineer Corps for a while, and I guess I picked a lot up here and there." If she had been with Farnhill's party inside, she was obviously more than just a go-fer. Why in hell did she come out to the parking lot to be nice to the troops? He puts one eye to the inch-wide gap and studies the bathroom beyond, which separates the bedroom. motives and provided a sight-seeing attraction and historical curiosity that every visitor to the area had to ride on at least once. Veronica, a practicing architect, was there with Casey, Adam, and Barbara. Celia had declined to return to the ship but was watching from the home that she shared with Lechat - on the coast; and Wellesley had taken a trip from his farm in Occidena to see his old ship recommissioned and renamed. What a crackerjack that girl is, what a sassy piece of work. By sassy, of course, she wanted them to. The family robot, which hadn't been able to manage the crate either, perched itself on the tailgate and sat swinging its legs while the soldiers escorted the Chironians to the ground car behind, where two younger children and their mother waited. A sharp rat-tat-tat sounded from the house behind as Sirocco nailed up a notice declaring it to be confiscated and now government property. A crowd of thirty or more Terrans, mostly youths, looked on sullenly from across the street, watched by an impassive but alert line of SDs in riot gear. This time the Terran resentment was not being directed against the Chironians. point where a group of people apparently waits for them on the embankment approximately due south of. "That happened with a lot of people," Colman told her. "Things were so messed up after the war. Does it matter?" Stern's eyes smoldered. "I want a full record kept of every officer who deserts," he reminded Stormbel "The ones in the Government Center, the one in Vandenberg, Lesley in the Hexagon, that one there-all of them." His voice was calm but all the more menacing for its iciness. "They will answer for this when the time comes. General, detach the Battle Module immediately and proceed as planned." Lechat nodded. "It's amazing," he murmured. "Give me one." Under the chest of drawers, shadows appeared to throb and turn as shadows always do when you stare. LOVE IS THE ANSWER T-shirt. "Very," Bernard agreed. He didn't really have a clue. "These are the guys I was telling you about," lay said. "The ones who are with the group that's going to the mountains." of years of cigarette smoke. Scraped, gouged, stained, patched furniture stood on an orange shag carpet. Kath looked apprehensively at Celia. Celia nodded in answer to the unvoiced question. "Yes, that's the way I want it," she said. Kath nodded and accepted the situation at that. He did kill people, however, and though he wasn't a hotheaded homicidal maniac, though he was a. Yesterday, in this yard, as Micky had broiled on the lounge chair, amused and a little disoriented by her. "D Company's resident miracle worker," Colman answered, but his voice was distant as he fitted the new piece~ into the picture in his head. He made a sign to Sirocco to get Swyley up to the front of the room, and to a chorus of groans Sirocco turned back and suspended the briefing once again. The video had been silent. When the kiss ended, sound was added: Jonathan Sharmer and his. into withdrawal. "Sure," Murphy accepted, and they all began walking. On the way, lay explained the problem to his three friends. "We have to do something," Marcia Quatrety insisted. "Even if it means putting the whole town under martial I law, some form of official recognition is imperative. This has gone on far too long as it is." Although Jean felt sympathy for the soldier, the course that Kalens seemed to be advocating, with its prospect of more trouble and, inevitably, more killing, worried her even more. Why did it always have to be like this? she asked herself. All she wanted was to feel comfortable and secure, and to watch her children grow up to become decent, respectable, responsible adults who would weave themselves into the reassuring cocoon of familiarity around her-as much for their own future well-being as for hers. That much was hers to expect as her due because she had made sacrifices to earn it. It threatened nobody. So why should other people's squabbles which were not of her making now threaten her with sweeping it all away? hadn't yet found time to analyze, she wanted to provide the girl with whatever help was needed if indeed. drawers. No way. Otherwise, only the closet remains unexplored. Movies and books warn that closets. speaking a word to each other, they move on, away from the truck. As a youth he had daydreamed about becoming an entertainer--a singer, or a comic, maybe--but he couldn't sing and he couldn't tell jokes, and somehow after his parents died within two years of each other halfway through the voyage, he had ended up in the Army. So now, though he still couldn't sing a note or tell a joke right, he knew just how to use an M32 to demolish a small building from two thousand yards, could operate a battlefield compack blindfolded, and was an expert at deactivating optically triggered anti-intruder personnel mines. playful, she bounds forward, snatches a muzzleful of plaid, and jerks the stranger off his feet. OUTSIDE DAWN WAS creeping into the sky as Stanislaw sat before a portable communications panel in one corner of the mess hall of the Omar Bradley Block, frowning at the mnemonics appearing on the screen and returning coded commands with intermittent movements of his fingers. Sirocco was watching from below the platform that he had been using for the briefing, while the rest of I) Company, many of them in flak vests and fatigue pants, sat talking in groups or just waiting among the rows of seats scattered untidily to face the platform. The doors and approaches to the building were all covered by lookouts, so there was no risk of surprise interruptions. "Clear to exit," the Dispatching Officer informed Sirocco. "Lock clear for exit," Sirocco called to the cabin below. "Carry on, Guard Commander," Colonel Wesserman replied from the depths. "Dreams die hard." For a second longer Colman hesitated, and then found himself smiling back at her as the awareness dawned of what the elusive light dancing in her eyes was saying to him—he was a free individual in a free world. And suddenly the barrier crumbled away. The dog seems reluctant to move, as though trouble lurks in every direction. His tail lowers further. Without shame, the mutt squats and urinates on the blacktop. Bernard shook his head again. "I don't know what you mean. The Kuan-yin can't fire effectively, It' & eclipsed frownt
